

SPEARS PLACES PHOENIX HOLDINGS ON MARKET

Incidentally Regrets Conditions Are Such He Cannot Live Here

E. W. Spears, who left here over two years ago on the advice of his physician, who said that his wife's health was such it would be necessary to live on the coast, has located permanently in Long Beach, California. His wife has, according to a letter received here, recovered her health and on account of this he has definitely decided to make that city his future home. He has invested extensively in real estate in the beach city and is meeting with his usual success. Mr. Spears is one of the old timers of Arizona and practically speaking, lived in Phoenix and Arizona all his life. He has many friends and acquaintances throughout the state and particularly in this city, who will be glad to know that Mrs. Spears has regained her health and that he is succeeding in his new field. He wants the people of this city to know that his faith in Phoenix is as strong as ever and that in his judgment it will be a city of 100,000 by 1920, and his only regret is that he is unable to live here as formerly.

Mr. Spears owns the north half of block 29, near the city hall, which he is advertising in The Republican.

RUDE TREATMENT OF ONE FRANCISCO VAISE

Three Men Pounce Upon Unassuming Mexican and Take What Money he has.

Francisco Vaise was rudely awakened early yesterday morning by hands grasping his throat and immediately after he felt himself dragged from his bed beneath a wagon. He was taken by his then unknown assailant to an outbuilding at the corner of Sixth street and Buchanan where two other men assisted in the forcible removal of twenty dollars from his pocket. It did not take Francisco long to find out that he was in bad, and as the thieves did not handle him with care he received quite a number of bad scratches on his throat and face.

After his assailants had taken all his money they told Francisco to get out, and being only too glad to escape with his life he fled to the sheriff's office where he told Deputy Sheriff Olea all that had befallen him. Olea and Constable Murphy started out in Murphy's automobile and succeeded in tracing one of the men to a camp near Tempe. The man tried to escape from the officers and hid in a box car but was soon found and brought to Phoenix and placed in the county jail. The other men were arrested at their homes early yesterday afternoon.

They were all arraigned in Judge Johnston's Court and gave their names as Pio Quinto Georges, Francisco Martinez and George Mancho. They will be given a hearing on Monday at 2 p. m. They acknowledged their complicity in the affair.

COMPANY B TEAM GOES TODAY TO TUCSON

National Guardsmen To Participate in Rifle Shoot at Wilcox Range

The first team to leave Phoenix for Tucson to participate in the state shoot on the Wilcox rifle range will be that of Company B, National Guard of Arizona which leaves this afternoon. In the team are included Captain Earl Hill, Sergeants Vern La Tourette and H. B. Hanson, Corporal Clyde H. Hunsicker and Privates W. F. Ogilvie and S. Robertson.

This team was chosen from Company B after lengthy practice on the range southeast of town and is going down to Tucson filled with determination to secure its full representation upon the team of twenty-five which will go into camp at Prescott next summer and which will be chosen from the highest scorers at the Tucson shoot. From the team of twenty-five, fifteen will be chosen to represent Arizona at the International Rifle Tournament at Camp Perry, Ohio.

On Sunday another team will leave Phoenix, all members of Company A, N. G. A., as well as of the Phoenix Rifle club. This team consists of Lieutenant C. R. Price, Lieutenant Dan Muskie, Sergeants Jackson McRee, Tom L. Edens, C. A. Bandy, Charles Shue, H. N. Threlkeld and Privates R. A. Young and M. Solomon.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, these and many other teams will participate in the national guard shoots and on the remaining three days of the week will shoot in the state tournament under the auspices of the National Rifle association, Mesa and Tempe companies, as well as the company from Prescott will be among those represented.

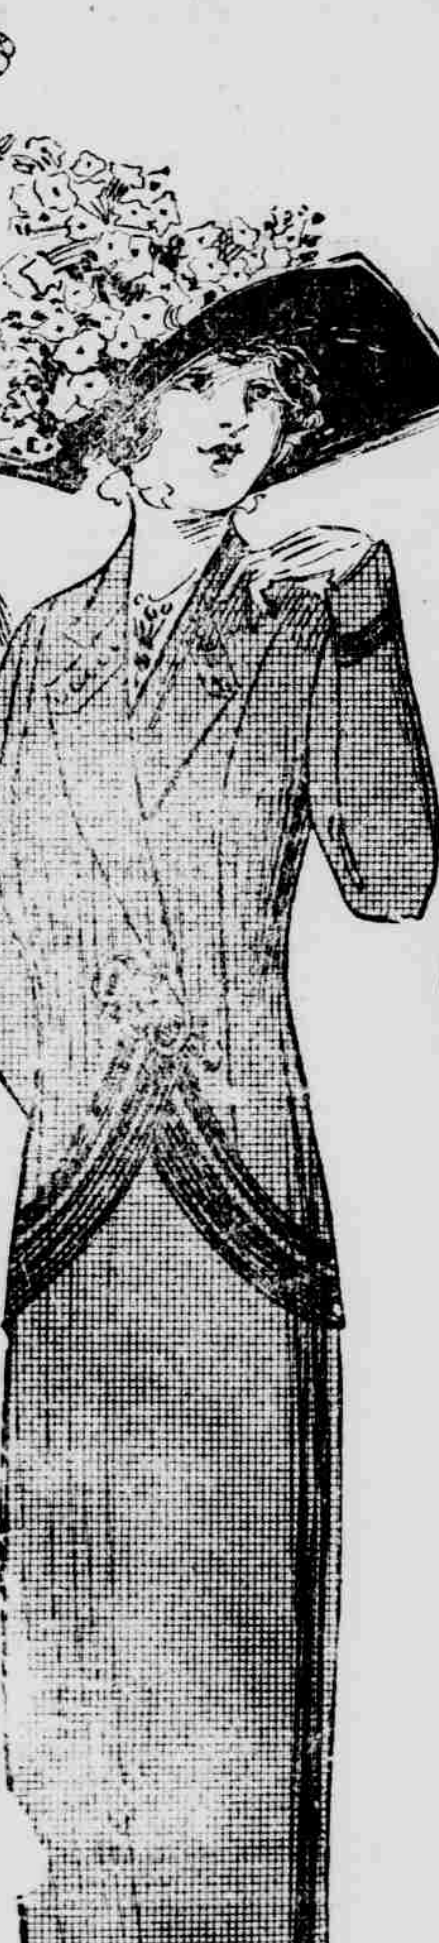

BUY OUT COSTLEY—The Southwestern Building and Investment company, with offices at present at 14 North Second avenue, yesterday purchased the real estate business of William M. Costley and company, and will in addition to taking over the business of the Costley concern move to the location of the latter on West Adams street.

Boston Store Millinery

This store is recognized headquarters for the most stylish, artistic millinery, at strictly popular prices. And the showing we now have more strongly fortifies this distinction. There is a rare collection of hats here for your approval, from which you will have little trouble making a selection.

The majority of hats for the new season are, as most of the women already know, small, close-fitting styles. And we have a host of these in street and semi-dress models.

The Question Of Fit

Is a matter of tailoring, and we do not exaggerate its importance when we say that the solution of this question has much to do with a woman's peace of mind. A perfect fit is the better part of style, and even a Worth model can not atone for its absence. The Boston Store garments are the work of specialists who bring to their labor successful experience and a sympathetic interpretation of the ideals expressed in the creations they copy.

The New Tailored Suits

The wool tailored suit is different this season, and more artistic effects have never been presented. Made of the serges, bedford cords, wool bengaline, wool eponge, fancy worsted, diagonals, mixtures, etc. The new one, two and three-button effects, the Balkan blouses and cutaway styles. Prices $15.00 and up.
